SUBJECT : CODEL Ayres

REF : Deptel 6811 dated June 19, 1963; Depcirtel 238 dated August 6, 1963

Congressman William H. Ayres (Ohio), arrived in London via BEA flight 555 at 2:10 P.M. on June 21. He was met by the Embassy control officer and accompanied first to the Embassy and later to his hotel, the Dorchester. On June 20 Mrs. Ayres arrived at the airport where she was met by the wife of the control officer and taken to the Dorchester.

At the Embassy Congressman Ayres asked the control officer to telephone Mr. Ronald F. Fowler of the Ministry of Labor. Congressman Ayres arranged with Mr. Fowler to have some material sent to the Embassy which the control officer forwarded to the Congressman on July 5. Congressman Ayres did not ask to see the Ambassador or any other officers of the Embassy. His trip to London appeared to be only a stopover on his way home from Geneva, and an opportunity for Mrs. Ayres to visit Coventry in which she expressed an interest.

On June 23 the Embassy control officer escorted Congressman and Mrs. Ayres to the airport where they took a plane for Washington. Congressman Ayres before departing expressed his thanks and appreciation for the courtesies extended to him by the Embassy.

The control officer for the visit was John F. Correll, Labor Attache.

For the Charge d'Affaires Ad interim:
